3. Crop a piece of Watercolor paper with the large Detailed Dahlias die using your Stampin' Cut & Emboss machine. (hint- the paper is thick, so it will take a few passes through the machine.)
4. Cut your watercolor piece in two using your Paper Snips.

5. Lay your two pieces on a paper towel and color with the following colors using your Water Painter: Bumblebee, Calypso Coral, Evening Evergreen, Just Jade, Mint Macaron, Old Olive, and Pale Papaya.

6. Once your die-cuts are dry, adhere them to a 4 1/2" x 6" piece of Bumblebee cardstock using Multipurpose Liquid glue and the Silicone Craft Sheet method. Do this by laying the pieces upside down on your Silicone Craft Sheet, add some glue to the sheet (up in the corner and out of the way), dab a sponge into the glue, and lightly tap some glue on to the pieces. (Hint- this will ensure that your small pieces have glue on them, and you will not have to worry about globs of glue oozing out from your layers.) Once the glue is dry on your sheet, simply rub it off with your hand.

7. Using your Paper Snips, fussy cut around the edges of the edges of the die-cut, leaving a small border. (hint- no need to cut around the straight edge, this will be cut off later.)

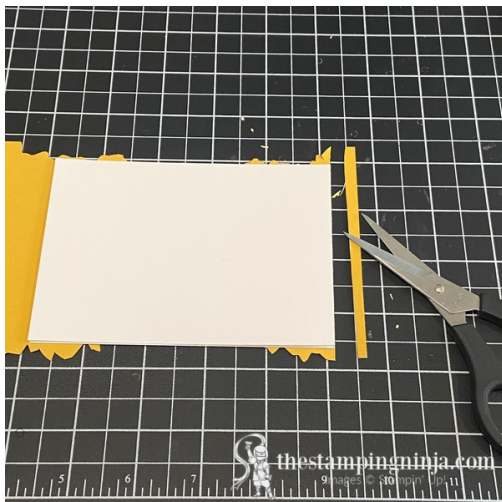

8. Adhere your two pieces to the notecard using Multipurpose Liquid glue so that the sentiment is lined up in the center. (your edges will be hanging off)
